

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

Everyone is invited to observe Young People's Day at Allen Chapel A.M.E. church Sunday, June 18. Wylie Jordan, a young man aspiring to enter the ministry, is scheduled to speak at the morning service at 11 o'clock. In the afternoon a program will be rendered by representatives from various churches. A pageant, "Love Conquers All," will be presented at the 8 o'clock service. Mrs. Collins is sponsoring this play, which will be a fitting climax to the day's programs. Make this the largest young people's day of the year. The church is located on the corner of Columbus avenue and Fulton street. The Rev. Collins is the pastor.

Here is something unique. A Children's Parade and Fashion Review, which will include three wedding parties, will be presented Friday, June 30, at Allen Chapel church. The Mary Marshall court of the Heroines of Jericho is sponsoring what promises to be a delightful bit of entertainment. Mrs. Cora Finch is the chairman.

Dorcas Club No. 4 held its election of officers on Wednesday, June 7, with the following results: president, Byrdie Crunkleton; vice-president, Ella Cook Frazier; secretary, Iona Richardson; assistant secretary, Mary Edmonds; treasurer, Mrs. Dixon; chaplain, Mattie King, and the parliamentarian, Bessie A. Pryor.

June brings to mind thoughts of romance and weddings and so we note that on Friday morning, June 16, Lillian Garner of Hermitage street, will become the bride of William T. Hitchcock of the Northside in St. Benedict's church. The reception will be held at the home of the bride's mother.

The date of the Marshall-Strothers nuptials has been set, also.

This month will see the return of college students and school teachers to their homes for the summer. Ernest Green of Bellevue and John Ford of Blitzhooover arrived last week from Lincoln university; Elizabeth Waters is at home after a year's teaching at Rixbury, Va. From Florida comes Helen E. Pryor, who is a teacher of music at the A. and M. college in Talladega.

The Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Glasco and son, Benjamin, motored to Concord, N.C., to attend the commencement exercises of the Barbara Scotia college. Their daughter, Harriet, will be among those receiving certificates for the completion of the two-year course. The Glascos will bring Shelton Waters with them when they return to the city. Shelton is a student at the John C. Smith university.

A few of the graduates taking their bow this month are: Barbara Ann Nash, James Jordan and Rudolph Rollins of Perry high school. The commencement will be held on Friday, June 23.

A cold snap is being given by the Ne Plus Ultra club on this Saturday, June 17, at the home of Mrs. Bertha Carroll, 1513 Sedgewick street. . . The Westminster Guild is closing its season's activities on Thursday, June 15. One social affair remains and that is the picnic which is scheduled for July 8 at South Park. Adelaide Richardson is president and Mrs. B. A. Pryor is the sponsor.

The Monday Night Players are planning to close regular meetings for the summer months. The president, James Gross, reports that the season will close officially with a social function.

Ces Jeunesses Modernes club, which presented Hawaiian Revelries at the Harlem Casino ballroom on Jun 8, scored a triumph with its uniqueness. Everyone present seemed to enjoy the tiny corner of Hawaii transplanted to our city. This club is planning another surprise in the near future. Theodore Martin is president.
