

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

Mrs. Edith Randolph, popular singer and evangelist, will hold services at the Bidwell Street Presbyterian Church on Sunday, July 16, and everyone is invited to be present. This spirit-filled evangelist will preach in the morning at 10:45 and the vesper hour at 5 o'clock. "The Choice of a Husband" was the topic of the second sermon in the "marriage" series being presented by the Rev. B. F. Glasco at the Sunday morning services. On Sunday, July 9, the subject will be the "Choice of a Wife."

It is Trustee Day at Allen Chapel A.M.E. Church on Sunday, July 9, and is a special service and rally held each second Sunday. The Rev. T. Collins, pastor, and his wife left the city on Sunday evening to spend their vacation in Cleveland, Ohio.

When the missionary convention opens in Monongahela City this week, Bessie Cook Thompson, delegate; Mrs. Stewart, president, and Byrdie Crunkleton will represent the adult society of the Allen Chapel Church while Janie Woodward and Essie Hart will represent the Junior society.

The Daily Vacation Bible School will be held in the Bidwell Street Presbyterian Church beginning on Wednesday, July 5, each morning at 9 o'clock. All parents are urged to send their children to this school of Christian Education. The annual picnic of the Bidwell Sunday School at the chapel at River-view Park on Tuesday, July 25. The church, Sunday School and all friends are cordially invited to spend the day with each other in the open. Fine entertainment will be provided for children, young people and adults.

Ruth Thomas of Hamlin street and Eleanor Johns of Warlo street, both members of the Avery Church, attended a conference in Cleveland, O., last week. Mrs. Norman Hardy was the delegate.

Young Elizabeth Jackson of Armandale street passed away on Sunday, July 2, at 5:30 after a lengthy illness. The funeral services were held on Wednesday, July 5. We extend our sincerest sympathy to the family and friends of the deceased. The services were held at Bidwell Church at 2 o'clock and the Rev. B. F. Glasco officiated.

J. W. Turner, scoutmaster of Troop 102, was the main speaker at Guy Summer camp on last Sunday. His subject was "David as a Boy Scout." Mr. Turner was the only Negro scoutmaster at the camp and was one of the inspectors with 13 troops in his charge.

Dolly Greenlee of Tribbey, Ky., is spending the holidays with her brother, Nathaniel Greenlee, newly-wed husband of Edith Richardson Greenlee.

Ida Young, Hamlin Way, is at home after a three weeks stay in St. Louis, Mo. Mrs. Young has been seriously ill and spent the past several weeks convalescing.

Mrs. Mary Weston is extremely ill in her home and we hope she will recover soon.

Mr. Henderson, Manchester barber, went to New York to witness the Louis-Galento fight. While there he visited his brother whom he had not seen for 35 years. Mr. Chapman called "Chapple" by his friends, flew to the fight.

A motor trip to New York was taken by the following party on Saturday, June 24, Mr. and Mrs. John Crunkleton, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Spencer, Mrs. Garner and Mrs. Byrdie Crunkleton. The Crunkletons stayed with friends in Flushing while the other members of the group resided with friends in Harlem. The week was enjoyable and the party visited the World's Fair and other points of interest as well as their friends and acquaintances who live there. Mrs. Bernice Derrick King, daughter of Bishop Derrick, entertained with a dinner party.

The date for the marriage of Anna Margaret Newson and Ernest Fritz has been set for the very near future.

The 16th birthday of Janie Woodward was celebrated on Friday, June 30, at the home of Mamie Anderson of Franklin street. The young people present included: Janie Woodward, guest of honor; Mamie and Sarah Anderson, Bessie Parker, Aquilla Ragsdale, Edith Moore, Florine Walker, Mildred Hogan, Doris and Dorothy Dennis, Dorothy Philpott, Lenora Turner, Felicia Hardy, Evelyn Bryant, Elizabeth Jacobs, Sally Ross, Edna Banks, Howard Watson, Jacob Edwards, James Trimble, James Woods, Earl Barnes, Ernest Jackson, Aaron Woods, Charles 'Chink' Morris, Luther Johnson Jr., Melvin Kellum, Wylie Jacobs and Riley Jones.