

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

On Sunday, February 12, at 10:30 a. m., Boy Scout Troop No. 102, will observe the 29th anniversary of the Boy Scout movement. The sermon will be presented by the Rev. B. F. Glasco and the service will be held at Bidwell St. Presbyterian church. In the afternoon, the troop will participate in the closing service at the East Liberty Presbyterian church. J. W. Turner is the scoutmaster.

The pastor and choir of First Presbyterian church of Ingram will have charge of the Bidwell Vesper hour on Sunday, February 12, to which everyone is invited.

Luther Johnson will be the main speaker at the Lincoln Day service at Bidwell on Sunday at 12:30 in the auditorium. Miss H. Williams will lead the singing while Roscoe C. Richardson will be in charge of the orchestra. Miss Mamie Marshall is chairman of this special observance.

The Lincoln-Valentine tea sponsored by the Young People's group of New Zion Baptist church will be held on Sunday at the Richard's residence, 1947 Irwin avenue. An excellent program and delicious refreshments have been prepared for your enjoyment. Walter Maddox is president.

Troop 102 and Scoutmaster J. W. Turner will be special guests of Troop No. 122 of the Manchester Presbyterian church Wednesday, February 8. The occasion is the Court of Honor at which time four scouts of Troop No. 102 will receive awards.

A Valentine party will be given by the North Side branch of the Christian Endeavor, February 14 at St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church, 501 Avery street at 8:15. Joe Wilson of Central branch will lead the recreation.

Do you want to help the Junior High Lights go to camp this summer? If so, attend their Valentine social Monday, February 13, at Bidwell.

The Lily of the Valley club met on Wednesday at the home of Bernice Dennis of Laurel street. The officers are: M. Ballott, president; A. Moncrieff, secretary; L. Millhouse, treasurer; social chairman, Graces Yates.

Nathaniel Greenlee arrived in the city Monday morning after having spent the past three months in Tribbey, Ky., visiting his parents.

George Ward is in the south transacting business.

Suprising the Richardsons with a visit on last Sunday evening were: Leola Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Hillman Yates, Joseph Hawthorne and Euthumn Napier.

Among the many people who crowded Carnegie Music Hall to hear "Wings Over Jordan" were: Miss Mamie Marshall, her mother, Mrs. Louis; Messrs. Dave Marshall and Harry Strothers in a party; Mrs. Ada Neely and Mr. and Mrs. Richardson of Decatur street; Artie and Calvin Tavers, Mrs. B. A. Pryor and daughter, Bessie, Betty Termon, Fred Lee Hammonds and Rev. Doyle Thomas of Sharpsburg, Pauline Wheeler and Etta Gamble and Mrs. Grace Hendricks, John Richards and many others.

The Ces Jeunesse Moderne club held its second annual installation banquet on January 31 at Parkers. Mansfield E. Cole presented an impressive address to the thirty members and friends gathered around the banquet table. Jonathan Marshall, the club's first president, installed the newly-elected officers. The singing was led by William Roberts.