

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

The North Carolina club of the New Zion Baptist church will present a program on Sunday, March 21 at 5 o'clock. The committee, with Booker Hines, as chairman, has secured some of the city's finest talent for your enjoyment.

The Rev. Whitmarsh of Sheridan Presbyterian church delivered a very fine sermon on Sunday, February 26, at the Bidwell Vesper Hour. The Christian Endeavor society, which met at 6:30, discussed the question: "Does the Study of Science Impair Ones Faith in God? If so, Why?"

On March 7, the Bidwell Christian Endeavor Society will celebrate the Pastor's Birthday with a hostess party beginning at 5:30.

The North Side Civic Concert Orchestra under the direction of F. Bradford is rehearsing for a concert to be given on March 30.

The Bidwell Sunday school is presenting the orchestra in its first formal appearance of the year.

Mrs. Rachel Davis of Bidwell street left the city on Saturday to go to Virginia at the death of her sister.

Mrs. Helen Patterson of 1436 Hamlin street is seriously ill in her home. J. W. Turner, scoutmaster of Troop 192, is likewise on the sick list. The condition of Leola Compton, who has been confined to her home, is improving.

The Westminster Guild will meet on Thursday at Bidwell to lay plans for its initial affair of the season.

A benefit social will be given by the Avery Memorial Recreational Center at Avery church on March 9 at 8 o'clock. A spaghetti dinner will be served. The church is located at 709 Avery street.

The Monday Night Players, who meet regularly at Bidwell church, had its first social meeting on February 27. This group, which is under the sponsorship of Mrs. B. F. Glasco, spent an enjoyable evening playing games and partaking of delicious refreshments. James Gross is president and Adelaide Richardson is secretary. Roger Watson, a prospective member, was visiting on this occasion.

A bit of romance! Young Florence Rankin and Howard Blackburn were wed last week.

The Garnet Girls of Pittsburgh will hold forth on Saturday, March 4, at Logan Hall.

Remember the Pariskian Girls social on March 11 at Logan Hall. Christine Sutton is president of this group.

All those desiring news in this column please call Cedar 2642 or send it to 1419 Hamlin street, North side before Monday evening.