

"Trip To Holy Land" On Display At Bidwell Church This Sunday

Eugene Evans, James Wesley Seek Manchester Talent
For All-Colored Motion Picture—Malcolms
Contest February 3.

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

Everyone is invited to take a trip to the Holy Land on Sunday, January 22, at 6:15, at the Bidwell Street Presbyterian Church, when Dr. Newton C. Carpenter presents his picture recital, "The Romance of the Holy Land." Dr. Carpenter's pictures are excellent, his lecture is presented in a charming interesting manner. Don't miss it!

The Rev. B. F. Glasco will preach on the subject, "A Man Who Left His Country" on January 22 at the vesper hour. Special music will be rendered by two choirs under the direction of Mrs. Maudelena Johnson and organist, Elizabeth Percy.

LAMAR PATTERSON IMPROVING

The condition of Lamar Patterson Jr. is improving and his family is expecting him home soon from the Allegheny General Hospital, where he was confined, due to an accident on January 9.

The family of the late Lula Patterson wishes to thank friends for their expressions of sympathy during their recent bereavement and also all other personal services.

To the family of Ellsworth Laurie, we extend sincere sympathy in their loss. Mr. Laurie's funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon at which the Rev. B. F. Glasco officiated.

An organization is being formed and at the last meeting, held on Monday evening, elected the following officers: James Gross, president; Shelton Waters, vice-president; Adelaide Richardson, recording secretary; Gertrude Watson, corresponding secretary; Anna Kathryn Holt, treasurer and the sponsor, Mrs. B. F. Glasco. The name has not been selected nor the full purpose revealed, therefore, further details will be given later.

HOLD ELECTION

The Ces Jeunesse Moderne club held its annual election on Tuesday, January 10, at the Kay Community club. The entire slate of officers were re-elected as follows: Theodore Martin, president; William Roberts, vice-president; Ed-venter Watkins, recording secretary; Genevieve Marshall, corresponding secretary; Adelaide Richardson, treasurer; Jonathan Marshall, business manager and Laird Rutherford and Herman Evans as members of the executive board. The board met on Sunday to form the club's policy for the year.

Eugene Evans and James Wesley are planning to produce an all-colored motion picture. Any young person, 16 years or over, who is interested in playing a part will meet at George Ward's Restaurant on Sedgewick street on Sunday, January 22 between 7 and 9 o'clock. It is not necessary to have dramatic ability as those selected will be properly coached. If not able to attend on Sunday, contact Mr. Evans at 1305 Steadman street or phone Fairfax 9139 for further information.

Young Edward Barnes with cooperation of George Mike, Charles Tate, James Patterson and Odel Robinson have started an orchestra which will furnish entertainment for parties. For more information write 2020 Preble avenue, Northside.

MALCOLM CONTEST FEBRUARY 3

At last, the date has been set for the Malcolm Club's Popularity Contest and pre-Valentine dance. It is to be held on Friday, Feb. 3 at James Street Hall, at which time Miss Malcolm will be crowned. Music will be furnished by Carol Washington and his orchestra.

When the A Cappella Chorus of Perry High school sang at the Carnegie Music Hall on Sunday, January 15, June Hoyt, Rudolph Rollihs and Harry Nash were among the singers. This fine group was directed by Anne George.
