

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

"The Gateway to Heaven," a musical pageant, will be presented on Sunday, Feb. 5, at Bidwell Street Presbyterian Church at the Upper Room. The Helping Hand Club, which is sponsoring this service, urges everyone to attend what promises to be a song feast. Singers from other churches are taking part in the pageant and Mrs. Bernie Duggs is in charge of it.

The Nannie Byers Wilson Guild of Tabernacle Church is sponsoring a tea on Feb. 5 at the residence of Mrs. Hattie Smith, 1015 Warlock street from 3 to 7 o'clock. An excellent program has been arranged for the enjoyment of all who attend. Mrs. Hattie Smith is president of the Guild and Rev. J. A. McLeod is the pastor.

The usher board of Pilgrim Baptist Church is having a special communion service on this Sunday, Feb. 5 at 3:30 p.m. The city's best talent will take part on this program. Rev. Pulliam is the pastor.

A Lincoln Valentine Tea will be given on Sunday, Feb. 12, at the residence of Mrs. Wesley Richards, 2617 Irwin avenue, under the auspices of the Young Peoples' Group of New Zion Baptist Church. Walter L. Maddox Jr., is the president of Rev. R. H. Johnson is the pastor.

On Monday evening, Feb. 13, a Valentine Social, will be given by the Junior High Lights at the Merrill Church. Plans are being made for a jolly time for those who attend. Aquilla Ragsdale is president. Mrs. B. A. Pryor is the sponsor.

Sunday will be the opening day of the 29th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America and the first service will be held at St. Paul's Cathedral at 11 o'clock. Boy Scout Troop 102, with Scoutmaster J. W. Turner, will attend that service.

James Patterson completed his life scout work and Robert Glass his star scout work on Tuesday. Both boys are members of Troop 102.

All out for the Northside rally on Saturday, Feb. 11, at the Manchester Educational Center, 1522 Chateau street, sponsored by the Vocational Guidance Committee of the Urban League of Pittsburgh. The following interesting topics will be discussed: Politics, Marriage and Family Relationships, Youth and the Church, Employment, Youth Movements, Workers' Problems. The rally will begin promptly at 2 p.m. Young people from 14 years of age and up are urged to attend. A social hour, including refreshments, good music and an amateur hour is being arranged for your enjoyment.

Several members of the Monday Night Players, a newly-organized dramatic club, enjoyed the winter sport of sled riding on Saturday evening, Jan. 28. James Gross, who acted as host, served the young people delicious refreshments. Those present were: Anna Holt, Rachel Tate, Adelaide Richardson, Shelton Waters, Laird Rutherford, Benjamin Glasco and James Gross.

Elizabeth Waters, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waters of Warlock street, received a teaching position in Culpepper, Va. Miss Waters, a recent graduate of Duquesne University, and a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority, left the city on Tuesday with her brother, Shelton, who is returning to his studies at Johnson C. Smith University.

Conroy Junior High school is graduating the following: Willie Barr, president of his class; Mildred Hogan, Bernice McGruder, Ruth Batils, Esther Owens, Gladys Carpenter, Robert Ligons, James Holloway, William Davis, Orville Hogan and Robert Oakes.

Remember the Malcolm's Popularity contest on Friday, Feb. 3, at James Street Hall. Music will be furnished by Carol Washington and his band. Who will be Miss Malcolm? Be present on Friday and find out.