

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

Sunday, August 13 will be Woman's Mission Day at Pilgrim Baptist Church at 3:30 with a special sermon presented by Rev. Hobby. Rev. W. Pulliam is the pastor.

The Young People will have their day at New Zion Baptist Church on August 13.

Looking ahead we find that Woman's Day will be observed on Sunday, September 3, at the Bidwell Street Presbyterian Church. The chairman, Mrs. Harry Strothers, urges all women to attend as well as the men and make their day the greatest one of the year.

Hazel Mitchell, trained nurse from Gastonia, North Carolina, and Juanita Butler of Sewickley were visitors at the Bidwell Sabbath School on Sunday, August 6.

Benjamin Glasco, son of the Rev. B. F. Glasco, spoke at the Beulah Baptist Church in Beltzhoover on August 6 at a Young Peoples Day service. His subject was "Faith."

Mertus Alexander received an award of a silver medal in an oratorical contest held on Monday evening, July 31, at the Youth Temperance Council formal tea at the Y. M. C. A. Congratulations!

Mrs. Byrdie Crunkleton left the city on Tuesday to visit her son, Jesse Crunkleton, and his family. Mr. Crunkleton is a motrician in New Castle.

Our sincerest sympathy is extended to the following families in this hour of bereavement. To Dr. McCoy at the death of his mother in Alabama and to Rebecca Dennis and family in the loss of their grandmother.

The Ne Plus Ultra club closed its activities for the season until October. The closing was in the form of a banquet at the home of Mrs. Byrdie E. Crunkleton. Twenty-two guests were present. Among the outside guests were: Dr. Robert Seals, Mr. and Mrs. William Moss and Mrs. Clara Johnson. The members entertained their husbands at this formal affair. A presentation of a cut-glass cocktail set was given to Mrs. Crunkleton for keeping accurate records. Mrs. Fay Person is the president.

Would you like to go to a picnic? The North Side Branch of Christian Endeavor will hold its annual outing on Sunday afternoon, August 20, at 2:30 at Shellhaus Farm. Games to interest everyone will be played and the day will come to a close with a vesper service. Be sure to prepare your own lunch and transportation. Those desiring to go will meet at Bidwell Church on August 20 at two o'clock.

Stiff joints greeted some of Manchester's equestriennes after a day with the horses on Sunday, August 6. Those riding were: Myrtle Reed, Adelaide Richardson, James Gross, Howard Kennedy, Laird Rutherford, Stanley Curtis and Frank Bryant.

Last Wednesday evening the Nash girls of Bellevue had a moonlight picnic at which their many friends spent an enjoyable evening. Of course, weiners were roasted and songs were sung and tales were told. It was one of the most outstanding events of the summer.

Walter Young of Hamlin Way returned on Saturday from a two-week visit at his home in Alabama.

Leola Compton arrived home on Sunday from her vacation spent in Philadelphia. She visited Atlantic City also.