

pathy to the Thomas family of Stedman street in the passing of their grandmother who was 123 years of age. Death came on Sunday, Sept. 3, at 1 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Crunkleton entertained at dinner, Buster Derrick of Flushing, N. Y., Sunday. The color scheme was blue and orange. The other guests included Misses Eleanor Johns and Elizabeth Waters, who return to her duties on Tuesday as teacher at Culpepper, Va. Mr. Derrick was a delegate to the National Technical Association Convention, which convened in Pittsburgh, this week.

Mrs. Byrdie E. Crunkleton entertained at dinner on Friday, Rev. and Mrs. T. A. Collins and their nieces, Barbara and Delores Ball of Cleveland, O.

Edna Banks left the city on Saturday to return to her home in Virginia after having spent the summer visiting her aunt, Mrs. Rachel Davis. A farewell party was held in her honor preceding her departure.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. Mattie Glasco and hope for her speedy recovery.

Thomas Key returned to his duties in Washington, D. C., after spending the past two weeks in New York and Pittsburgh.

Dolly Greenlee went home last week after spending an enjoyable two months with her brother, Miss Greenlee's home is in Tribbey, Ky.

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

The men of New Zion Baptist Church are asking the co-operation of all Manchester in helping them to observe their annual Men's Day on this Sunday, Sept. 10. The committee in charge has arranged an interesting program beginning with the regular preaching service at 11 o'clock and followed by a program, featuring visiting quartets and other talent from various churches. Be sure to do your part to co-operate with the men in this effort.

On Sunday, Sept. 17, Mt. Olive Baptist Church of Sharpsburg will observe its Men's Day. The Rev. Doyle Thomas will present the sermons for that day. Dinner will be served at 3 o'clock. Go and worship with them.

The ladies of the Lemington Avenue Home will visit the Bidwell Street Presbyterian Church as the guests of the Willing Workers club at which time the Rev. B. F. Glasco will preach a special sermon. Dinner will be served to the visitors immediately following the morning service. This service will occur on Sunday, Sept. 10. Mrs. Josephine McCard is president, Mrs. Zola Dorsey, secretary.

September 17 will be Rally Day for the Bidwell Sunday School. Dr. Harmelink of the Pittsburgh Presbytery will be the speaker.

Women's Day at Bidwell on last Sunday was a truly great observance with persons from churches throughout the city participating in the services. Special mention should be made of the only gentlemen to appear on the program in the person of Messrs. James Dorsey and James Truman, who rendered a vocal duet. Mrs. Harry Strothers thanks everyone who helped in any way toward the success of the effort.

The Pittsburgh Interracial Hospital Movement began the organization of a unit on the Northside on Wednesday evening. The president, Rev. B. F. Glasco, stated that the legal difficulties have been removed and the movement will soon go forward.

Remember the chicken dinner at Allen Chapel on Tuesday, Sept. 12, beginning at 5 o'clock. A free program will be given in the evening at 8 o'clock.

Another birthday dinner will be given on Sept. 19 at Bidwell.

We extend our sincerest sym-