

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

On Sunday, May 7, the Hallie Q. Brown chapter of the Harriet Tubman Guild rendered a program at the Bidwell Street Presbyterian Church at 5 o'clock. At 6:15, the Christian Endeavor Society met and discussed the topic, "Making Decisions."

On May 6, the Rev. B. F. Glisco spoke to the student-body of Grove City College. It was an inspirational message and was enjoyed by all who were present at the banquet.

"The Mercy Seat" will be presented at the Bidwell Church on Thursday evening, May 18, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Lucille Buckner is the directress of this inspiring play.

"The Gateway to Heaven" will be presented on Sunday evening, May 21, at the Allen Chapel Church under the auspices of the Young Peoples' Choir. Mrs. Flossie Tate is supervising this beautiful and moving pageant.

"Mother's Day" will be observed at Phillip's Temple by the young people with a special program including a play. All are invited to this service on May 14.

A May buffet dinner will be given at Bidwell on Tuesday, May 16, beginning at 6 o'clock. An excellent program will be rendered throughout the evening. Mrs. Vanilla Prince is the chairman and Mrs. Ada Rutherford is the assistant.

The play, "An Old Fashioned Mother," will be presented on Friday, May 12, at the Victory Baptist Church by the New Zion Young People's Group. On May 19, the group will perform at the Brown Chapel Church. Be sure to see this excellent play under the direction of James Whitely. New Zion is having a "Music Extravaganza" on May 28, to which everyone is invited.

The Junior Highlights are honoring and entertaining their mothers at a banquet. A program for their enjoyment and delicious repast are the features. Mrs. B. A. Pryor is the sponsor and Aquilla Ragsdale is president.

Adelaide and Gwendolyn Richardson, Laird Rutherford, James Gross and Charles Bailey Sr. will be the delegates to the Allegheny County Christian Endeavor convention on Friday and Saturday, May 12 and 13, at the Sharpsburg Presbyterian Church. The theme is, "Aiming High for Christian Living."

Remember to attend the production, "Laff That Out," given by the St. Benedict Players on this Friday, May 12, at the Horton Hill High School. This comedy is under the direction of James Garner. Josephine Garner Crunkleton, an excellent actress, will appear again. These players are the prize winners of the past three "Jabberworks." See them in action.

No Plus Ultra club will present a Fashion Review on May 19 at the Northside Elks Rest. Beautiful clothes will be modeled by the city's well-dressed persons. The music will be rendered by Carroll Washington and his orchestra. Eunice Hunt, Dave Melontree and Alonzo Rutherford will sing between acts.

The Westminster Guild will meet at Bidwell on Thursday, May 18, at 8 o'clock. Plans are being made for the coming Mother and Daughter party. The committee in charge is Betty Pryor, Sara Moore and Gwendolyn Richardson.
