

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

In the absence of the Rev. B. F. Glasco, Sunday morning, September 24, the Rev. George White, of Duquesne, delivered an inspirational sermon at the Bidwell Street Presbyterian Church. The Sabbath school rally was in charge of the assistant general superintendent, Mrs. Mamie Strothers. Mrs. Sadye Alston, teacher of the young people's class, presided, and introduced the main speaker, the Rev. R. J. Harmelink.

The Bidwell vesper services will begin on this Sunday, October 1, at 5 o'clock. Immediately following the Christian Endeavor Society will convene. All young people are urged to be present at 6:15 for this first meeting, at which the plans for the season's work will be presented.

On Thursday afternoon, October 5, the Junior High Light Community Club will resume its weekly meetings. All members are requested to attend. Girls ranging from 12 through 17 years of age are eligible for membership. Mrs. B. A. Pryor is the sponsor. In the evening of the same day, the Westminster Guild will have its initial meeting of the season. Adelaide Richardson, who is president, expects an excellent attendance.

Gwendolyn Richardson, Howard Kennedy, Frank Bryant, Laird Rutherford and James Gross attended the Young People's League meeting on Thursday, September 2, at the First Central Presbyterian Church. A missionary from India was the main speaker. Games and refreshments were enjoyed later in the evening.

The Northside Branch of Christian Endeavor is planning a weiner roast on Saturday, October 7, at Parish Hill, North Park. More definite details will be given next week.

The Nurses' Court of the New Zion Baptist Church is presenting a special program on Sunday afternoon, October 1, at 3:30. Everyone is invited to this service. The Rev. Mr. Johnson is the pastor.

Janet Richardson was the dinner guest of Mamie Anderson, of Franklin street, on Sunday afternoon. Mabel Wright, of Day street, returned home Saturday from a two weeks' vacation in Mobile, Ala., where she visited relatives. Mrs. Byrdie Crunkleton, of Liverpool street, is spending several days in Philadelphia, attending a convention. Looking ahead, we note that the popular Youth Congress will have its formal opening on October 20. Interesting activities, worthwhile study classes and pleasant association will be featured by this season's congress. Be on hand at the opening.

Margaret Heyward's rendition of Carrie Jacob Bond's "Just A-Wearyin' for You" was very delightful on last Wednesday, September 20, when the Silvertones presented their weekly program on KQV. Evelyn Turk and Cornelius Dorsett had solo leads also, and sang beautifully. Miss Esther Moore is the directress.

Remember the Monday evening rehearsals of the Northside Civic Concert Orchestra at the home of the leader, Walter Felix Bradford, 415 W. Jefferson street. All players are urged to attend. The time is 8:30.
