

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

On Sunday, August 6, the Rev. Green of the Bethel A.M.E. Church will be the speaker at the 3 o'clock service. The Bethel Gospel Chorus will accompany the pastor. The Senior Stewardess Board, 1 will sponsor the service to which everyone is invited.

At the Pilgrim Baptist Church, August 6, the young women's club will present a program at 3:30 and will include some of the city's finest talent.

Young People's Day will be observed at the New Zion Baptist Church on Sunday, August 13. The group sponsoring this program are working untiringly to present a day of worthwhile services.

A musical tea is being presented on Sunday, August 6, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Carroll, 5513 Sedgewick street from 3 until 7 o'clock, under the auspices of the Supervisor's Board of the Household of Ruth, district 4. A silver offering will be lifted. Mrs. Byrdie Crunkleton is chairman and Mrs. E. Smallwood is secretary.

The Youth Temperance Union Council will have a formal tea on Monday, July 31, at the Y.M.C.A. on Centre avenue. The time is 8:30. One feature of the program is an Oratorical Contest in which Mertus Alexander is taking part. Mrs. E. C. Jones will appear, also.

Daily Vacation Bible Schools are closing this week. The Bidwell school will have its exhibit and exercises on July 27 while Macedonia's will close on Friday, July 26. The parents and friends are urged to attend these exercises and encourage the children as well as the teachers.

Mrs. Olie Johnson, wife of John Johnson of Sedgewick, passed away on Saturday, July 23, after an extended illness. To the bereaved family, we express our sincerest sympathy.

Mrs. Brown and daughter, Bernice of Chicago spent an enjoyable week at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Person of Franklin street.

Visiting Dorothy Dennis of Warren street is Geraldine Overton of McDonald.

Phoebe Tolson spent the weekend in New York City and while there visited the World's Fair and was entertained by relatives. She left the city on Friday and returned on Monday morning.

A camp time for the members of the Junior Highlight Community club and the Girl's club from Bethesda Presbyterian Church. Twenty girls will leave on Monday to spend ten days at Camp Phillips in New Cumberland, W. Va. The three supervisors will be Mesdames Jane Gantt, B. A. Pryor and Miss Helen Rankin.

Georgia Harris, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Rachel Davis of Bidwell street, left the city on Saturday and is now with her mother in New Jersey.

Have you ever been to a hayride with real hay? The Hardies Softball team is giving one on this Friday, July 28, at about 7 o'clock. Those planning to go are to meet at the home of the sponsor, Mrs. Lillian Hardy, 1245 Liverpool street. All out everyone to this real hayride. The girls promise a grand time to you.

The eight Bidwell Christian Endeavorers, who attended the Retreat on Saturday, July 22, with about 16 other Northside Branch members, spent an enjoyable day at Bill McClintock's summer cottage. The recreation period from 4 to 6:30 included a treasure hunt, which led through the woods and a game of softball after which came the welcome call for dinner. After an abundance of delicious food was devoured, the Endeavorers divided into conference groups. The climax came with the worship service around the campfire and concluded with a candlelight service. Those attending were: Dollie Greenlee, Edna Fanks, Harriette Glasco, Adelaide, Janet, Gwendolyn Richardson, Benjamin Glasco and James Gross.

The Ces Jeuneses Modernes left the busy city behind and hid themselves away to the wide open spaces on July 23. This day at Scully's Hollow was spent in play and the chief diversion of all picnics, eating. In the evening, a fire was built and marshmallows were toasted. The club is planning another outing to take place in August.

On Sunday, July 30, Walter Bradford Jr. and Nick Simile will appear on the Wilkens' Amateur Hour at 3 o'clock on radio station WJAS. These two youngsters have a unique combination with Walter at the drums and Nick at the accordion. They play in a sensational manner and will thrill you with their rendition. Listen in, everyone, and send in a vote for them.