

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

John Randolph, evangelist, will preach at the Bidwell Street Presbyterian Church next Sunday at 10 a.m. The service will be sponsored by the Student Loan Fund with Mrs. Mattie Glasco as chairman. Everyone is welcome.

Rev. Gillespie will speak at Allen A.M.E. Church on Sunday, July 16, at 3 o'clock. This is a special service to which the public is invited. Rev. Collins is pastor. The following delegates are leaving this week with Rev. Collins to attend the Sunday School convention. They are Evelyn Bryant, representing the Allen A.M.E. Church Endeavor League and Mrs. Tumble, delegate from the Bidwell Sunday School. The convention is meeting in West Bridgewater. Reports concerning the recent Sunday School convention held in Philadelphia City will be presented Thursday, August 3.

Friday, August 13, will be Young Men's Day at the New Zion Baptist Church with the Rev. O. W. Brown, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church as the principal speaker. Remember the date and time.

Scout Club 4 met at the home of Mesdames Morgan and Waterhouse, 2039 Charles street, Wednesday, July 5. Mrs. Parish presided at the meeting. The club will meet at Bidwell Street Presbyterian Church Wednesday, August 2.

Men's Day will be observed at New Zion Baptist Church on this day, July 16, at 3:30 with a special program presenting the outstanding talent and Manchester's well known professional men. All are invited to hear this program and help the men in this city to raise their quota of $1,000. When the Union Baptist Association met in Creighton on last Wednesday, the following persons attended: Ruth Pulliam, Mesdames E. C. Jones and Ethel Green, Misses Meredith and Curdith Alexander and Lucy Teasely.

Boy Scout Troop 12 will be in the line of march on Friday, July 14, in Chewick on the town's annual Fireman's Day and Boy Scout Day celebration. All of the members of the troop are requested to meet at Bidwell Church Friday, July 14, at 6 o'clock in full uniform. This is by order of the Scoutmaster J. W. Turner.

On June 24, Olean Alexander went to the W.C.T.U. Camp near Rankin and remained until July 1. While there he visited Harrisburg and took part in other activities. The Young Men's club of Pilgrim Church will honor Leo Bryant, graduate of Oliver high school, with a reception on Monday evening, July 17.

Miss Louise Peterson was seriously injured in an accident in her home July 5, but she is now improving steadily in the Allegheny General hospital.

Eleanor Johns of Warlo street was called to Baltimore, due to the serious illness of a relative.

Helen Pridgen has been confined to her home for the past week under the physicians care.

New York and New Jersey were visited by Louise Trapp, S. L. Alexander, Lucius Patterson, Leroy Adams and Arthur Craft, last week.

Lenore Turner is spending her vacation with her mother in Washington, D. C.

The Ne Plus Ultra club was entertained Saturday, July 8, at the home of Mr. Irvin. The guests included Anna Gray of Williamsport, who has been the week-end house guest of Mrs. Byrdie Crunkleton. Mesdames Moody and Person.

Irene Tolbert of Philadelphia visited her sister, Rosetta Blair of Pittsburgh, last week. While in the city she was very pleasantly entertained.

It's picnic time again and we find that the Young People's Group of New Zion Baptist Church spent July 4 in Riverview Park, while the Monday Night Players picnicked at South Park.

Thursday, July 20, Allen Chapel's picnic will be held at West View Park. Everyone welcome.

Riverview Park will be the site for Bidwell's outing and the date is Tuesday, July 25. Young and old are invited and urged to meet at the Chapel and spend an enjoyable day with friends. Entertainment will be provided for all.

A Christian Endeavor Retreat will be held Saturday, July 22, at Bill McClintock's summer cottage near route 8, beginning at 3:30. A treasure hunt and games will be featured until 5:30; dinner will be served at 6 o'clock, which will be followed with a conference period to discuss the question, "What Christian Endeavor Should Do." A prayer and devotional services will close this day's retreat. All Endeavorers desiring to attend contact Gwendolyn Richardson, Cedar 2842, before Monday, July 17, in order that reservations for food and arrangements for transportation might be made.

Final plans have been made for the Youth Congress banquet on Friday, July 14, honoring the graduates from high schools and college of February and June as well as the Bidwell Sunday School orchestra. This is an annual affair but will be put on a larger scale this year.

Remember Daily Vacation Bible School at Bidwell each morning at 9. All parents are urged to send their children. The school will close July 27.