

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

On Saturday evening, April 8, at 8:45, Edith H. Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Richardson and Nathaniel Greenlee were wed in the bride's home, 1419 Hamlin street. The Rev. B. F. Glasco performed the ceremony which took place before the immediate family and a few friends. The bride in white net wore a corsage of pink roses. Her sister, Gwendolyn as maid of honor, wore green. Louis Rosell acted as the best man. Edith was given in marriage by her father. The newlyweds spent Easter Sunday in Youngstown, Ohio, visiting the groom's relatives. They will reside on Nixon street.

The Easter exercises at Allen Chapel A.M.E. Church were held at 8 o'clock. The program was very enjoyable and Mrs. I. Fritz was in charge.

The Easter program at Bidwell began at 5 o'clock and was presented by the Children's Division of the Sunday School. Mrs. T. Phillips presided. A girls' chorus from Ebenezer Baptist Church, under the direction of Mrs. Maudeleena Johnson, sang two selections.

A Spring style show will be given on Thursday, April 20, by the Westminster Guild at the Bidwell Street Presbyterian Church at 8:30. The latest fashions for all types of people, for all ages and all times of the day, will be shown. Adelaide Richardson is president and Frances Hurt and Gwendolyn Richardson are co-chairmen.

Remember the Christian Endeavor banquet on Friday, April 14, at the McClure Avenue Presbyterian Church. Judge Lencher will be the speaker. The dinner will be served at 6:15.

Plan to attend the second annual banquet given by the Ben Avon Community club softball team on Friday evening, April 14, at Elridge Hall, 210 Hemlock street. The time is 8:30 and dancing will follow the banquet. The officers are: B. Moore, president; D. Palm, vice-president; E. Powell, superintendent and Morris Taylor, treasurer.

Fourteen-year-old Lenora Turner, celebrated her birthday on Wednesday, April 5, with a party. Those present included: Mamie Anderson, Janet Richardson, Mary Louise Rose, Mildred and Ruth Butler, Charles Morris, Charles Cooper, Aaron Woods and Stanley

Blackburn.

The tiny daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wray was christened Maxine Vernese on Sunday morning by Rev. B. F. Glasco. Mrs. Anna Richardson stood with the mother.

Isabella Compton Hendricks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hendricks was christened on Easter Sunday morning by Rev. Glasco. Mrs. Turk stood for the baby.

Returning from a motor trip to New York City over the week-end is Ralph Gheder, Walter Jackson, Harry Chapman.

George Anderson of Hamlin street spent the holiday visiting friends in Youngstown, O.

The Barnett family of Laurel street motored to Cleveland to spend Easter with relatives.

Mrs. Roselia Simpson, Midland, spent the week-end with her cousins, the Richardsons of Hamlin street.

By this time, the Ces Jeunesses Modernes will have enjoyed a swimming party at the Y.M.C.A. This is the last chance to win two tickets to the New York World Fair. The prizes will be awarded on Tuesday, April 18, at the Kay Community club at 9:30.