

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

Mrs. Lucille Buckner wishes to thank her many friends of Bidwell Street Presbyterian Church and Northside for their kindnesses in remembering her with prayers, gifts and cards in her recent illness. She is convalescing and taking part in her activities again.

Here is an important notice: Will G. W. Jones or Mrs. E. Jones get in touch with Willie Terry, of 1005 Decatur street, Northside. A letter is there from Lovie Jackson, of Birmingham, Ala. Please contact at once.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ralph are the proud parents of a six-pound baby boy. Mrs. Ralph, the former Bertha Byrd, has named her son for her father, the late Rev. Garfield Byrd. Southern trips are quite popular this vacation period. S. T. Fuller will spend the next two weeks in Georgia, while Lula Hall and Mrs. Fannie Benton are planning to stay a month with their respective relatives. A delightful week-end was spent in Akron, Ohio, by Alice Blackwell. William Thomas, of Frederick, Md., is visiting his aunts, Mesdames Courtney Diggs and Ada Rutherford, of Lake street. He will remain in the city for an indefinite period.

Thursday, August 10 was Daisy Mozee's birthday, and she celebrated with a party at the home of Estelle Renwick, of Sedgewick street. Twenty-five guests made merry on this occasion, and Mrs. Mozee was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts. Nathaniel Greenlee spent his birthday August 10, with his wife's family, the Richardsons, of Hamlin street, at a special dinner, including the immediate family and his sister, Dollie, who is visiting.

Adelade Richardson marked the passing of another year on August 13, and went horseback riding with a group, including Rachel Tate, Howard Kennedy, Frank Bryant, James Gross and Laird Rutherford. Despite the uncertainty of the weather on August 13, the Ces Jeunesse, Modernes Club held its second outing of the season at Scully's Hollow, in Ingram, and had a grand and glorious time. Miss Esther Moore presented her singing group, "The Silvertones," in concert on Friday evening, August 11, at Trinity A.M.E. Church, and the results were excellent. The program was varied, and included spirituals and classic selections. Solos were sung by Evelyn Turk,

Margaret Hayward, Alonzo Rutherford and John Brown. Virginia Nash read the history of the group while Nettie Claughton acted as the reader. The Moore Quartette pleased the audience with three selections. Special selections were sung by a mixed quartette and a girls' double trio. Those in the quartette were: Bessie Pryor, Freda Brown, Alonzo Rutherford and Ronald Mitchell. The double trio included Evelyn Turk, Bessie Pryor, Odessa Hunt, Ella Leonard, Freda Brown and Margaret Hayward. The Silvertones invite you to listen to their broadcast each Wednesday evening at 8:45 over Station KQV. Due to alternatives and re-decoration of Bidwell Baptist Church, the services were held in the downstairs on Sunday, August 13. At Sunday school, the three divisions met together. The Children's Division presented the worship service, the young people were represented by Shelton Waters, who spoke on "The Life and Work of Father Damien"; the adults were represented by Charles McCard, who brought the lesson on Elisha. Sunday, August 20 is the Christian Endeavor picnic at Shellhaus Farm, near Gibsonia. Those planning to go, please meet at Bidwell at 2 o'clock, with your lunch, and if possible, transportation. Everyone is invited. Join in this circle of fellowship. The schedule is as follows: 3 to 5:30, there will be games of mushball, badminton, volleyball, horseshoes and others; 5:30 to 6, supper will be served; 6:30 to 8, more games; 8 to 8:30, songs by everyone 8:30 to 9, evening worship. We will see you there.

Ned Spells, of Harrisburg, visited his parents during the past week. Sunburned and happy, the Junior High Light Community Club girls returned home on Wednesday from Camp Phillips, in New Cumberland, after a stay of ten days. The Boys' Club left on the same day to spend a week at the camp under the leadership of J. W. Turner.
