

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

On Sunday, January 8, the Rev. B. F. Glasco of the Bidwell Street Presbyterian Church will preach on the subject: "A Man Who Fell and Broke His Neck" at the vesper hour. The service will begin at 5 o'clock. There will be special music by two choirs under the direction of Mrs. Maudelena Johnson and organist, Elizabeth Percy. All members are urged to bring their neighbors. Immediately following the service, the Christian Endeavor Society will meet to which all are invited.

The Boy Scout Troop 102 was represented by ten boys at the Board of Reviews at which time eight scouts passed the second class test with honors. The majority of the honor scouts were members of the Beltzhoover district. The parents are urged to insist upon all boys over 12 to join the troop. J. W. Turner is the scoutmaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Rutherford are the parents of a baby girl. According to a report, the baby's name is Carolyn. Mother and daughter are doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Brown of McKeesport were the holiday week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Long of Hamlin street. Mr. Stewart is the brother of Mrs. Long. The Browns enjoyed their visit immensely.

Dr. Scott of Philadelphia, son-in-law of Mrs. B. F. Glasco, visited at the Glasco home.

Marjorie Fields and Helen Pryor were home for the holidays.

Frances Glasco left the city on Sunday to return to her teaching in Gastonia, N. C., while Harriet will return to Barbara Scotia College on Monday.

We are sorry to hear of the death of the father of our own 'Art' Thomas. Accept our sincere expressions of sympathy.

Upon the sick list is Mrs. Mary Nokes of Stedman street, Raymond Primas, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Primas and Gladys McPherson. Best wishes for a speedy recovery.
