

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

A great crowd turned out to meet Rev. Randolph, evangelist, today, July 16, when she held at the morning and vesper services at the Ridwell Street German Church. Everyone was spiritually uplifted by wonderful messages and the singing by the Ridwell Choirs and a Chorus augmented by the members from Mt. Olive Baptist Church of Sharpsburg. This vesper service, which was sponsored by the Student Loan committee headed by Mattie Glasco as chairman, will close the vesper hours of early Fall. The morning and Sunday School will meet at their regular hours. Rev. B. F. Glasco is the pastor.

A Women's Day Rally at Pilgrim Church on July 16 was successful. The Rev. Woods was the main speaker for the day service and presented a inspiring sermon. On next day, July 23, the Nurses Court gave a special afternoon program. Everyone is invited.

A Youth Congress banquet, for the graduates and the members of the Sunday School orchestra, a delightful affair. It was held Friday evening, July 14, at the York World's Fair theme building and perisphere was lighted out in the decorations in the colors of orange, green, yellow and white. The program presented at the table included vocal selections by Harriette Glasco, Luther Johnson and E. Thompson; Robert Owens led a violin solo while Anna presented a reading. The Youth of Youth Congress was led by Sharon Waters, the high school. Amanda Ragsdale acted as emcee of ceremonies. The guests present were: Katherine E. Thompson, Hattie Key, former high school; Marvin L. Oliver, Elrita Durant of Chicago; Barbara and Harry and James Jordan of Perry; Mrs. Glasco and Helen Randolph; Barbara Scotia Junior College; McDonald Williams of University of Pittsburgh. The speakers giving encouragement to the young people were: E. B. Day, teaching at the University in Tallahassee; James Glasco, instructor in E. N. C. and Elizabeth Watkins at Culpepper, Va. R. C. was the director of the day and represented the 18 members with a few others.

Present for the honor, J. H. was general director and led the orchestra was E. B. Virginia Ferdinand, former teacher in Ambler, a former member. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Jones, sister of Sunday School teacher Sadie Alston and a teacher at Charlottesville, Va. Rev. B. F. Glasco introduced the members of the Student Loan Board and Youth League. The evening closed with a performance by the orchestra.

The Women's Day at New York World's Fair promises to be an outstanding day of services. The date is August 13. Remember that. The Electric Wedding held on Friday, July 14, was an interesting and lovely entertainment. Young people of various churches assisted in this affair.

Anna Newson and Ernest Fritz were made one on Saturday, July 15, at the Allen Chapel parsonage. The pastor, Rev. T. Collins officiated. The couple are at home at 26 Melrose avenue. We extend our best wishes for a happy wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mitchell are the parents of a baby girl while it was a boy at Will Rutherford. The mothers and babies are doing fine.

Anna Cook is home for the summer from Howard University where she finished her freshman year.

The Misses Audrey and Pearl Blackwell were visiting last week in the city of New York. James Woods is spending a few weeks in Ashtabula, O.

Howard Kennedy wishes to express his gratitude to everyone who was so kind and sympathetic to him in the recent death of his brother, Alfred Kennedy. For all acts of kindness and best wishes Mr. Kennedy is deeply appreciative and says thank you.

When Boy Scout Troop 102 attended the Volunteer Fireman's celebration at Cheswick on last Friday, it discovered it was the only Pittsburgh troop present. The scouts with Scoutmaster J. W. Turner drilled beautifully and made a fine appearance in the line of march. The boys were treated with refreshments at the Fair Grounds. Mr. Morgan of 256 Carrington street, donated his truck for the scouts transportation. He has offered his services to help in organizing the Drum and Bugle Corp. Scoutmaster Turner was again appointed supervisor of camp at Guy Sunter, August 4 and 5.

On July 14, the Ward Bucs won the softball game over the Northside Dragons at the Salt Works Field. The winning pitcher was Jr. Taylor; the losing, Melvin Wade. The score was 9-5. The Bucs defeated the Pittsburgh Newsies, 9-4. The team has won 14 games out of 16. The team has the following boys in the lineup: B. Taylor, T. Mozee, W. Griffin, W. Taylor, M. Ward, J. Lee, H. Parker, B. Oakes, J. Michel, Jr. Taylor, E. Jones, E. Jackson, Jr. Nixon and George Ward, manager. The ages of the members are 13 through 16 years. For games call Fairfax 4483, and ask for Milton Ward, or the manager.

When the Ces Jeunesses Modernes presented Blanche Calloway at the Harlem Casino Ballroom on July 7, "Neeny" Waters substituted as the pianist. When the Calloway aggregation left the city, Mr. Waters accompanied them to continue as the pianist on their tour. Good luck, "Neeny!" May you as a local boy make good.
