

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

The Student Loan committee wishes to thank the parents, who entered their babies in the recent contest, and everyone who supported them in any way. The contest closed on Tuesday, Sept. 12, with the following results: First prize was won by baby, Richard Cook; the second by baby, Marjorie Parker and the third by little Olivia McPherson. The remaining participants received gifts for their efforts. Mrs. Rachel Davis, chairman of the ways and means committee, was the head of this contest and declares the affair a huge success. Thank you again, parents and friends.

Remember Rally Day at Bidwell Sunday School on Sunday, Sept. 24 at 12:30. All members and friends are urged to be present on time. The Rev. R. J. Harmelink, director of Christian Education of the Young Peoples' League, will be the principal speaker. He is interesting and everyone should try to hear him. Music will be furnished by R. C. Richardson and his orchestra. This will be their first appearance since the vacation period began. All our teachers and pupils to rally together for the fall work.

The Northside Civic Concert orchestra is resuming its rehearsals beginning on this Monday evening, Sept. 23, at 8:30 at the home of the leader, Walter F. Bradford, 415 West Jefferson street. All members of the group are requested to attend.

The time has come to bid the last students goodbye as they return to their studies. Vincent Taylor will study again at Wilberforce while Shelton Waters returns to Johnson C. Smith University. Helen Rankin, a February graduate of Barbara Scotia Junior College, is continuing her education at Hampton University. John Ford of Belzhoover left on Sunday evening to return Lincoln University. Barbara Scotia college will receive Rachel Tate and Lalon Pearson as freshmen this year. The girls left on Sunday morning for the North Carolina school.

Now for those remaining in the city, we note that Lois Thompson and Harriette Glasco have entered Duquesne University while Robert Thompson has chosen the University of Pittsburgh.

Vacationing in Philadelphia and Atlantic City are the Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Glasco, who left the city on Monday morning.

Mrs. Ruth Thomas of Hamlin street is visiting her mother, Mrs. Ella Mae Stewart of Boston, Mass. Mrs. Stewart was an old Manchester resident.

Paul Epp, a visitor at Bidwell Church, is a new student at Xenia Seminary, having received his college training in Knoxville College and Virginia Union.

Alonzo Rutherford was the soloist when the Silvertones, under the leadership of Esther M. Moore, presented its program on last Wednesday, Sept. 13, over radio station KQV at 8:45. Listed to this group of singers on each Wednesday evening and encourage them with your letters.

A unique formal party was given by Evelyn Bryant on Friday, Sept. 15, to celebrate her 18th birthday. The hostess wore a lovely blue taffetta gown. The music was furnished by Jephth Zellas in his own inimitable manner. Some of those present were: Sara and Mamie Anderson, Aquilla Raggsdale, Janie Woodward, Lenora Turner, Janet Richardson, Dorothy Phillpott, Dorothy and Doris Dennis, Mildred Hogan, Ruth Bulls, Catherine Morris, Felicia Hardy, William Davis, Charles Greer, Willie Griffin, William Kennedy, Wendell Saunders, Joe Williams, Pete Wills, Larry Cook, Howard Watson, Jesse Stotts, Eddie Baker, Arnold Robinson, John Thomas, Earl Barnes, James Stokes, and others.

The Bidwell Junior Choir is having a wiener roast as its first fall activity. It will take place in Bellevue on this Friday, Sept. 22. Mrs. Maudelena Johnson is the director of this group of young singers.