

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

The Baptist Young Peoples' Union of the New Zion Baptist Church discussed the subject, "The Use of the Bible" on Sunday, Jan. 8. The leaders of the discussion were: Josephine Howe, Geraldine Woodyard and Henry Gamble. The young peoples' group which meets each Sunday at 6 o'clock is beginning its year's work next Sunday with James Williams as president and Mrs. Ethel Parker as program chairman. The New Zion Church is progressing steadily under the leadership of the Rev. B. H. Johnson, the pastor.

The Usher Board of the Pilgrim Baptist Church is planning a special afternoon service on Sunday, Feb. 5. Some of the city's best talent will be on the program. The Rev. Pulliam is the pastor of this church which is located on Beaver avenue.

Mrs. Maudelena Johnson and Mary Jackson were the soloists at Bidwell Church on Sunday, Jan. 8 at the vesper hour. The Junior Choir made its debut in the new robes on Sunday also. On Jan. 15 at 5 o'clock, the Rev. B. F. Glasco will speak on the subject, "A Man Who Fell and Broke His Neck." Be sure to attend the vesper services.

Would you like a visit to the Holy Land? If so, be present at Bidwell on Sunday, Jan. 22, at 6:15 to see and hear Dr. Newton C. Carpenter present his picture recital, "The Romance of the Holy Land." It is a colorful presentation of Palestine together with a sane interpretation of modern movements in that country.

Covered dish suppers are quite popular these days. The Willing Workers' club met on Tuesday, Jan. 10, at Bidwell and enjoyed a surprise supper following the business meeting. The Westminster Guild will meet on Thursday evening, Jan. 19 and anticipate a delicious covered dish lunch after the meeting. The first lesson on "City Shadows" will be presented by Gwendolyn Richardson at that meeting. Adelaide Richardson, music chairman, will lead special group singing and Irene Hendricks will have charge of the worship service. Elizabeth Waters, social chairman, will take care of the repast.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Adams of Beaver avenue are the proud parents of a baby girl.

We are sorry to report the illness of Constance McPherson who has been confined to her home for the past week.

The first social affair given by the Northside Silverleaf club was such a success, the members are planning another on Feb. 18 at the home of Mrs. Ida Young, 1507 Hamlin way. Gladys McPherson is the president and Rachel Stiger is secretary. The club will meet on Tuesday, Jan. 17, at the home of Daisy Mozee, at which time plans will be laid for this social.

The regular meeting of the Malcolm club was held at the home of Charles Morris and LeRoy Foster. Plans were being made for the club's dance to be held soon at the James St. Hall at which time the Malcolm Queen will be crowned. The following persons were added to the membership: Jack Evans and Larry Cooke. LeRoy Foster, James Leonard and Charles Morris, Wilbert Wade won the whist prizes. A delicious repast was served by the hosts. The Malcolm's meeting will be held at the home of Levy Davis, 1033 Boyce street.

Barbara and Harry Nash were members of the Perry High School orchestra, which presented a fine concert on Jan. 12. Barbara is an excellent violinist while Harry is an exceptional cornetist.