By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

The Bidwell Sunday School Rally Day will be observed on Sunday, September 24, at 12:30 o'clock. The service will take place in the main auditorium of the church. The principle speaker will be Dr. Harmelink of the Pittsburgh Presbytery and special music will be furnished by the orchestra under the direction of R. C. Richardson. The Vesper services, which were so popular at Bidwell last season, will be resumed the first Sunday in October at 5 o'clock. The Christian Endeavor Society will open on that day, also. This young people's service will convene immediately following the vespers. The Beacon Light class met at the home of Mrs. Edna Richardson of Hamlin street, on Friday, September 8. Following the business meeting and the study of the Sunday school lesson, the members were served a delicious repast by the hostess. Those present were: Mesdames Nettie White, Corrine Adams, Hattie Ritchie, Mary Lewis, Zephyr Petty, Smith and the Misses Betty Smith and White.

The Willing Workers club will meet at the home of Mr. Saunders of Beltzhoover on Friday, September 15. All members are asked to attend. This organization entertained the ladies of the Lemington Avenue Home on last Sunday, September 10, with dinner. Mrs. Josephine McCord is the president.

Mrs. Courtney Diggs of Lake street wishes to thank her many friends who remembered her during her illness and convalescence.

Boy Scout Troop No. 102 will resume its activities on Tuesday by order of the Scoutmaster, J. W. Turner. All of the boys are expected to be present at all of the meetings.

Mrs. Ada Neeley entertained as house guests the past week Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Payne of Washington, D. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Fleming of Clifton Forge, Va.

Visiting New York these past two weeks are Christine Sutton and Pauline Wheeler. . . Mrs. Aaron Gilmore of Detroit, Mich., is spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Sheffield Dennis of Allegheny avenue.

To Rev. Livingston of Franklin street, we extend our sincere sympathy in the passing of his wife and brother. The funeral services were held on Monday afternoon, September 11, at the Bidwell Street Presbyterian church, with the Rev. B. F. Glasco and Elder June Davis officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy H. Boyd of New York are the proud parents of a son, born on September 4. Mr. Boyd was a former Manchester resident. . . After a short visit with his family, Ned Spells returned to his duties in Harrisburg. . . Remember the special Men's Day service at Mount Olive Baptist church of Sharpsburg on Sunday, September 17. The Rev. Doyle Thomas will preach and the Gospel Chorus will render special music.

The fall meeting of District 3 of the Young People's League will be held in the First Central Presbyterian church, located at Arch street, on September 21 at 8 o'clock. The special feature of this meeting will be an address by a missionary from India. Games will be played and light refreshments will be served. Members of the Westminster Guild, Junior High Light Community Club and the Christian Endeavor are urged to attend.
