

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

On last Sabbath morning, the Rev. T. A. Collins, pastor of the Allen Chapel A. M. E. Church, preached on the Four Horsemen. At the afternoon service, the Rev. Mr. Hughey, accompanied by his choir, was the guest, and rendered a wonderful service. At 8 o'clock the Willing Workers' Club held a candlelight service to a most appreciative audience. This Sunday, August 27, the Stewardess Board No. 1 will sponsor a special program at 3:30. Mrs. Mamie Matthews is the president.

On Sunday, September 3, the Bidwell Street Presbyterian Church will have Woman's Day. Mrs. Mamie Strothers is the chairman.

On Thursday, August 31, the little tots of Allen Chapel will present a play under the direction of Mrs. C. V. Collins, at the church. The Pastor's Aid is sponsoring a hope chest, and the Sunday school is planning a baby contest. The date will be announced later. The annual conference is drawing near, and each member is urged to be ready to pay the annual assessment of $1 for education and fee. The Bidwell Junior Choir is giving a garden party on Friday, September 1, at 1516 Bidwell street. This group of young singers, under the direction of Mrs. M. Johnson, want co-operation. The Student Loan Committee of Bidwell is sponsoring a baby contest, which will close September 12. Mrs. M. Glasco heads this committee. The musical tea, given by the Supervisor Board District 4, Household of Ruth, at Mrs. Bertha Carroll's residence, was a success. Proceeds to defray delegates' expenses to the District Conference in Philadelphia. Mrs. Mary Brown, chairman. We are sorry to have omitted the following names as guests of the Ne Plus Ultra Club's banquet: Mrs. Grace Jamison, Detroit, house guest of her sister; Mrs. Bertha Carroll, Mrs. Grandison and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Crunkleton. Miss Marian Handy, of Chicago, returned home after two weeks as guest of Mrs. Blanche

Stewart and her sister, Miss Gertie McPherson. Little Betty Jones visited Mrs. Rodgers, of Bidwell street, the past week. Young Jeanette and Bertram Patterson spent two weeks with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Patterson, of Mount Washington.

Mrs. Hudd, of West Virginia, visited her mother, Mrs. Fell Irwin, of Franklin street, last week. Bessie Gray, of Ridge avenue, left the city on Friday morning to visit her father in Louisiana. Visiting New York City this week will be Edith Greenlee and her sister, Gwendolyn Richardson.
