

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

The Junior High Light Community club will celebrate its tenth anniversary on Sunday, April 30, at the Bidwell Street Presbyterian Church. An excellent program, including musical selections, has been arranged with Alice Baker acting as chairman of the committee. Miss Marchal V. Ellison of the Urban League will be the guest speaker. Remarks will be given by Gwendolyn Richardson, who was the club's first president. There will be special music by the choir. This service will begin promptly at 5 o'clock. At 4 o'clock, the Northside Quiet Hour will be held at the church.

The Spring Style Show presented by the Westminster Guild on Thursday, April 20, was a unique and interesting affair showing the season's most popular fashions. Credit must go to Herman Brown, employe of the Boggs and Buhl department store, for his influence in securing the use of beautiful scenery and decorations. The Guild extends its sincere thanks to him and to all who participated and helped toward the success of the review.

Luther Johnson, Jr., young baritone, will be presented in recital at Bidwell on Thursday evening, May 4, for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund.

The Susan R. Underhill Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Nettie White of West Jefferson street on Thursday, April 27.

The Westminster Guild will meet on Thursday, May 4, at the home of Miss Evelyn Parker on Franklin street at 8 o'clock. Adelaide Richardson is president and Elizabeth Percy is secretary.

We extend our sincerest sympathy to the bereaved family of Melvin Anderson of Franklin street who passed away on Tuesday evening after an illness of five months. Final services were held on Saturday afternoon, April 22, at the Allen Chapel Church.

All Christian Endeavorers are invited to attend the Allegheny County Christian Endeavor Convention on May 12 and 13 at the Sharpsburg Presbyterian Church on 13th and North Canal streets in Sharpsburg. The theme is "Aiming High for Christian Living." The banquet will be held on May 13 at 6 o'clock at the Y.M.C.A., at which time the Rev. Doyle Thomas will lead the singing of spirituals.

Mrs. Rachel Davis of Bidwell street wishes to thank her pastor, fellow members, and friends for their kindnesses during her recent illness. The gifts of flowers and fruit sent her and the prayers raised for her are truly appreciated.

Mrs. Marybelle Primas returned on Tuesday from a trip to Philadelphia.

Helen Livingston is visiting friends in Detroit, Mich.

The Hardies Mushball team, a recent organization, will give a social on Friday, May 12, at Eldridge Hall, 210 Hemlock street. This event is for the benefit of uniforms for the girls. The officers are: Mildred Butler, president; Janet Richardson, secretary; Dorothy Dennis, treasurer and Mrs. Lillian Hardy, sponsor.

The Ces Jeunesses Modernes club will announce the winners in the raffle which terminated on April 18 at the Kay Community club. John Diggs of 1253 Lake street won the two round trip tickets to the New York World's Fair and L. Waldschmitt of 3022 Spring Garden avenue received the second prize of $4 in cash. The club extends its congratulations to the winners.

The executive board of the Ces Jeunesses met on Sunday, April 23, at the home of Adelaide Richardson, 1419 Hamlin street, at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Edna Richardson was the guest of Mrs. Bessie Voten at the installation of the officers of the Women's Auxiliary of Veterans on Monday, April 24.

Those desiring tickets for the Fisk Jubilee Singers on June 5 may secure them from Mrs. Lucille Buckner.

Continue to pray for Geraldine Woodyard who is seriously ill in the Allegheny General hospital.