

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

Sunday, March 26, the newly-elected officers of the Bidwell Christian Endeavor Society were installed by Miss Annetta Swann. Following the installation service, Ruby Martin sang a soprano solo, accompanied by Lillian Stoner.

The Westminster Guild met on Thursday, March 23, and elected the following officers: Adelaide Richardson, president; Mary Massey, vice-president; Elizabeth Percy, secretary; Bessie Gray, assistant secretary; Gwendolyn Richardson, treasurer. Following the business session, the girls enjoyed a delicious repast. Mrs. B. A. Piyor is the sponsor of this group. The contest, sponsored by the New Zion Baptist Church, came to a close Sunday, March 26, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Gladys Skinner was declared the winner.

The Young Peoples' Sunday School class presented an excellent worship service on March 26, at the Bidwell Street Presbyterian Church. The theme was "Prayer" and the theme song was "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer." Gertrude Watson had charge of the service while Benjamin Glasco prayed and James Gross gave a short talk. "Thoughts for Happiness" were read by Gwendolyn Richardson and the class sang, "The Lord Is My Shepherd." Mrs. Sadie Alston, who has just returned from a trip South, is the very efficient teacher.

The Utopia club held its tea on Sunday, March 26. Members of the Loendi, the North Side Hostess, the Oriental and Inter-See clubs were among the guests present who enjoyed the fine program and excellent entertainment.

The Utopia club is having a social on Saturday evening, April 1, at the home of Mrs. W. Rutherford, 1508 West North avenue. Alma Fantroy is president and Mary Massey is secretary.

The North Side Silverleaf club met at the home of Ida Young of Hamlin way, on Tuesday, March 21. The organization set forth its plans for a spring social at Logan

Hall on April 15 at Foster and his Krazy play. Gladys McPherson, president.

Funeral services for were held on Tuesday at Bidwell Church with F. Glasco officiating. Friends and family, with their sincerest sympathy.

Laura Peterson, D. man, Betty Peterson Reese visited Janet H. her Hamlin street home Sunday afternoon.

Ces Jeunesses Met met at the home of and enjoyed a space had as guests the sons: Robert Willis, Nathaniel Greenie, S. tis, Mansfield, Clark. The club is grand contest on April time, two tickets to the World Fair will be