

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

The members of the Bidwell Christian Endeavor Society accepted the slate of officers presented by the nominating committee on Sunday, March 19. The new officers are: Gwendolyn Richardson, president; Katie Jenkins and James Patterson, vice-presidents; Anna Holt, secretary; Ruth Butler, corresponding secretary and the treasurer, Ernestine Holt. The committee chairmen are: Willa M. Howard, social; Aquilla Ragsdale, prayer meeting; Miss Peters, Quiet Hour; James Gross, finance; Laird Rutherford, program; Dorothy Philpot, publicity and Sara Jordan, music. Installation service will be held on Sunday, March 26, at 6:15. All Endeavors are invited to the banquet sponsored by the Northside Branch at the McClure Avenue Presbyterian Church on Friday, April 14, at 6:15.

A contest has been going on at New Zion Baptist for the past month and a half, between four groups having the following captains: Gladys Skinner, Geraldine Woodyard, James Whitely and Jesse Lewis. The group that has raised the largest amount of money will be awarded a prize. This friendly rivalry closes on Sunday, March 26, at 8 o'clock.

Remember to attend the play, "An Old-Fashioned Mother," given by the New Zion Young People's Group on Friday evening, March 24.

The Utopia club will have a musical tea on Sunday, March 26, at the residence of Mrs. Alma Fantroy, 1123 Beaver avenue. Some of North Side's most talented artists will appear on the program. The time is from 4 until 7. The chairman is Emma Chester.

The North Side Civic Concert Orchestra is being presented by the Bidwell Street Presbyterian Sabbath School on Thursday, Mar. 30 at 8:15. The orchestra is under the direction of Walter F. Bradford.

Would you like to win a trip to the New York World's Fair? The Ces Jeunesses Modernes are sponsoring one and urge you to take advantage of this opportunity which will close on April 18. Two round trip tickets are being offered as first prize with cash as an alternative. For Manchester residents, Myrtle Reed is the North Side captain. The grand drawing will be held at the Kay club on Bedford avenue. This club met at the home of Miss Reed, 1423 Hamlin street, Tuesday, March 21. After a short business session, members and friends enjoyed a spaghetti and meatball dinner. The proceeds from this dinner will help Tabernacle Baptist Church in its Building Fund.

A social will be given by the Malconettes on Friday, March 24, at the home of Mrs. Heywood, 100 Carrington street. The president, Sara Eberhardt and her co-workers, promise an enjoyable time to all who attend.

The North Side Hostess club will give its first spring dance at 210 Hemlock street from 8 until.

The Housecoat party given by the Loedi Social club on last Saturday evening was a lovely affair.

Mattie Lewis, of Hamlin street, has been ill for the past week. Our sincere wishes for a speedy recovery.