

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

Easter Sunday morning, the service at the Bidwell Street Presbyterian church will begin at 10:30 o'clock, at which time the pastor, the Rev. B. F. Glasco, will preach and the combined choirs will render special music. The communion will be served also. There will be baptism at 10 a. m. The regular Sunday school session will be omitted and the Easter exercises will be held at the Vesper hour, 5 o'clock. The children's division is presenting the program. . . Good Friday, April 7, consecration services will be held at Bidwell from 8 to 8:45 o'clock. The Deaconesses will have charge of the prayer and praise services during the month of April beginning this Wednesday at 8 o'clock. Remember the Junior church, which meets each Friday afternoon at 4:15. . . Everyone is invited to attend the Easter sunrise service held at Observatory Hill in River-view park at 6 a.m. The Rev. C. Carpenter will speak. . . The Dorcas Club No. 4 held its regular meeting on Wednesday, April 5, at 2 o'clock, at the Allen Chapel A. M. E. church. Memorial services were held for Mrs. Odette Irwin and Mrs. Mary A. Robinson. The program was in charge of Mrs. Bessie Voten. Mrs. Byrdie Crunkleton is president. . . A fried chicken supper will be held at the residence of Mrs. Byrdie E. Crunkleton, 1168 Liverpool street, Saturday, April 8. The hours are from 5 until 7. The dinner is for the benefit of the rally at Allen Chapel church. . . Mrs. Beatrice Plater died Monday morning April 3, in the Provident hospital, Baltimore, Md. Mrs. Plater had been confined to the hospital since September with injuries sustained in an automobile accident. Her husband and children left for Maryland on Monday evening. Our sympathy is extended to all of the bereaved family.

Ida Young, 1507 Hamlin way, is confined to her home with a serious case of pneumonia. Christine Sutton is ill also in her home. We hope both of these sick persons will recover soon. . . Two neighbors, Mrs. Edna H. Reed and Mrs. Edna H. Richardson, of Hamlin street, celebrated their birthdays on Monday, April 3. . . Mrs. Margaret Waters and granddaughter, Roberta, of Warlo street, are spending the Easter vacation in North Carolina. . . The Ben Avon Community Club center, under the supervision of Morris Taylor is sponsoring a banquet on April 14 at 210 Hemlock street. . . The North Side Silverleaf club is expecting you at their swing dance on April 15 at Logan hall. Henry Foster and his Krazy Kats will furnish the music. . . Take that trip to the New York Worlds Fair at the expense of the Ces Jennesses Modernes. You might win the two round-trip tickets given as the first prize. . . Howard Kennedy spent the past week-end in Philadelphia with his brother, Alfred, who is attending the Lincoln seminary. . . Jonathan Cain, who spent the past four months in the city, left on Saturday to return to New York City, where his family resides.