

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

"A Cry Out of Hell" will be the theme of Rev. B. F. Glasco's sermon on Sunday, January 29, at the Bidwell Vesper hour. The service will open promptly at 5 o'clock. Two choirs will render the music. The Christian Endeavor society will convene at 6:15.

The Rev. B. F. Glasco will speak to the students of the Western Theological Seminary this Thursday night.

Bidwell was crowded to capacity on last Sunday evening when Dr. Carpenter presented his pictures of the Holy Land. Special music was rendered by the Pioneer Group from the Coraopolis Presbyterian church and by Luther Johnson, who sang, "Dedication" and "I Love You Truly."

The January birthday dinner will be held on Tuesday evening at Bidwell church. This is the first in a series of dinner to be given each month, sponsored by those having birthdays in that month.

Aquilla Ragsdale, Elizabeth Percy, Dorothy Cosby and Benjamin Glasco are the delegates to attend the Young Peoples League conference on Saturday, January 28, at Manchester Presbyterian church from 2 to 8 p. m.

A Lincoln valentine tea, sponsored by the young people of the New Zion Baptist church, will be given on Sunday, February 12, at the residence of Mrs. Wesley Richards, 1947 Irwin avenue. An excellent program has been arranged for your enjoyment. Walter L. Maddox is the president; Rev. R. H. Johnson, pastor.

The Westminster Guild will meet on Thursday, February 2, at the home of the Richardson girls on 1419 Hamlin street. All members are urged to attend, as this is the regular business meeting. Membra Green was a visitor at the guild's last meeting, held on January 19.

The Women's Missionary Society of Bidwell Presbyterian church will meet on Thursday, January 26, at the home of Mrs. Mary Fields of Warlo street.

The following young people will be graduated from the Allegheny High school: Margaret Heyward, Catherine Gease, Eugene Thompson, Ulyses Kellam, Robert Thompson, Nathaniel Brown, Van Kelly and Kenneth Stotts.

Mrs. John H. Crunkleton of Liverpool street, arrived home on Sunday from St. John's hospital after having undergone a tonsil operation.

Mrs. Flossie West Vason is convalescing at the home of her mother, Mrs. Flossie West of Metropolitan street, with her month-old son.

Little Caroline Jackson celebrated her seventh birthday with a party on Thursday, January 19, from 4 to 6 o'clock. In her home on Hamlin street. Various games were the main features of the afternoon, after which a delicious lunch was served by Caroline's mother, Mrs. Marie Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. James Long entertained friends and relatives on Saturday night. Those present were Dorothy Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Brown, Mr. and Mr. William Renwick, James Danderidge, Jr., and John Brown. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Loendi Social Club of the North Side, a newly organized group, held its first meeting at the home of Mabel Ellis on Wednesday, January 18. The officers of the club are: Mabel Ellis, president; Emma Mayfield, vice president; Wills Mae Reed, secretary; Dorothy Mayfield, treasurer and Curly Patterson, membership chairman. This club's first affair will be a house coat party. The next meeting will be at the home of Emma Mayfield, 716 James street.