

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

Everyone is invited to attend the Working Workers annual service to be held on Sunday, June 18, at the Bidwell Street Presbyterian Church at the 5 o'clock Vespers Hour. The Rev. J. W. Parrish, pastor of the Metropolitan Baptist Church, will be the main speaker, and will be assisted by his choir. Miss Josephine McCard is the president of this organization.

The Rev. B. F. Glasco and his Young People's Chorus held a service at the Gumbert School on Sunday, June 18, at 5 o'clock. Solos were sung by Evelyn Turk and Esther Johnson Jr. Mrs. Maude C. Johnson is the directress of the choir.

A bazar is being given by the Young People's Group of the New Metropolitan Baptist Church, beginning Friday, June 26, and continuing throughout the week. This bazar will be held on Nixon street in front of the church. Excellent entertainment is being planned for the enjoyment. Miss Josephine McCard is the sponsor of this group. The Rialto Singers assisted the Zion Baptist Church Young People's Choir on Sunday, June 18, when they appeared at a Youth Conference in Monongahela City. The Rialto Singers, former radio stars, are becoming increasingly popular and include Morris Taylor, Alonzo Rutherford, Andrew Edwards and Enthumn Napier, Lawrence Page, tenor, is also a member.

W. Turner, the scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 102 has been appointed one of the camp inspectors. His duties begin Saturday, June 24, when the troops in the city go to Guy Sumer for camp. Mr. Turner will have three troops in charge.

Troop 102 will soon have two new Scouts and they are: Maize Johnson and James Patterson, whose applications have already been received. Maize Johnson received his Life Badge on Wednesday at the Court of Honor at Oliver high school. This is a fine record for this troop.

Wylie Jordan was honored when he received the activities medal from the Allegheny Vocational School. Congratulations!

The Sunday School class of Miss Mamie Marshall will honor her on Thursday, June 22, with a bridal shower. Miss Marshall will wed Harry Strothers on Saturday, June 24, in the manse with Rev. B. F. Glasco officiating. The newlyweds-to-be are both active members of Bidwell Church and we wish them happiness in their life together.

Home again is Marjorie Fields of Warlo street, who has been studying for her Master's degree at Knoxville. Johnny Ruth Pulliam, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Pulliam of Pilgrim Baptist Church, is here for the summer after her second year at Spelman College. Shelton Waters arrived from Johnson C. Smith University and Vincent Taylor came home to rest from his studies at Wilberforce.

Frances Glasco, a teacher in Gastonia, N. C., will spend her vacation at home as will her sister, Harriet, who completed a Junior college course at Barbara Scotia.

Edna Banks and Georgia Harris, nieces of Mrs. Rachel Davis of Bidwell street, are visiting their aunt for an indefinite period.

Mrs. Susan McGloane of Norfolk, Va., arrived Sunday evening for a visit with her daughter, Gladys McPherson, 1118 Decatur street.

Adelaide Richardson of Hamlin street is spending the week in New York City. While there she will visit the World's Fair and her cousins, James Hardy and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Boyd, formerly of this city.

More graduates will take their bows this month and Allegheny high school will graduate the following: Hattie Key, Marjorie Preston, Agnes Thomas, Catherine Harris, Lois Thompson, Charles Morris, George Hayden, Charles Courtney.

Many young people will finish their courses at the Conroy Junior high school on Friday, June 23. They are: Janie Woodward, Dorothy Philpott, Ruth Bulls, Felicia Hardy, Edith Moore, Marie Jackson, Dorothy Chatman, Agnes Eberhardt, Berjeane Persons, Mabel Wade, Gladys Ellis, Ernestine Barnett, Ernest Jackson, Geo. Adams, Riley Jones, Saint Turner, Henry Alexander, Richard Lewis, Harry Jackson, Caryn Taylor, Herbert Dunn and Raymond Primas.

Hilda Gibbs and James Wesley said, "I do," on Saturday, June 17. The happy couple are residing at 1116 Hamlin street.

Laird Rutherford of Lake street is visiting his brother, Arthur Rutherford and family. During his stay, he will go to the World's Fair.

Ces Jeunesses Modernes claim your attention with their presentation of Blanche Calloway and her orchestra on Friday, July 7, at the beautiful air-cooled Harlem Casino Ballroom. Novelties and refreshments will add to the evenings enjoyment.

Walter F. Bradford is requesting all members of the Northside Civic Concert orchestra to be present at rehearsal on Monday, June 26, at 8:30 o'clock. The group will meet as usual at his home, 415 West Jefferson street.