

MANCHESTER

By GWENDOLYN RICHARDSON

The Bidwell Street Presbyterian Sunday School observed Mother's Day with a special program under the direction of Elizabeth Percy. Members of each department participated in this tribute. The music was furnished by Roscoe C. Richardson and his orchestra. Everyone is invited to attend the Vesper Services that begins at 5 o'clock each Sunday. The Christian Endeavor Society will meet as usual on next Sunday evening at 6:15. All young people are urged to be present.

"Our Father's House," a religious pageant, will be presented on Sunday, May 21, at Allen Chapel Church at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Flossie Tate is the directress of this spiritual feast. Members of many churches will participate.

The Dramatic club of Phillips Temple C.M.E. Church is sponsoring the Queens of Harmony of Fairmont, W. Va., on Tuesday, May 23, at 8 o'clock. The officers and members of the club guarantee the public an excellent program. Curley Patterson is president, Laura Grayton, sponsor, and the Rev. L. M. King, the pastor.

The Nurses of Bidwell met at the home of Mrs. Bertha Carroll of Sedgewick street on Thursday, May 11. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ada Rutherford, 1255 Lake street, at which time Mrs. Ethel Bailey will instruct.

On Sunday, May 21, the usher board of New Zion Baptist Church will sponsor a special program at 3:30 o'clock.

The Junior Highlight Community club closed its meetings on Thursday. The club has planned a final social affair this month before vacation. Aquilla Ragsdale is president, Mrs. B. A. Pryor is sponsor.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Dixon of Hamlin street are the parents of a son, born on Saturday, May 13.

Mrs. Ernestine Kelly Plater passed away on Wednesday morning in the Allegheny General hospital after an extended illness. The funeral services were held on Saturday, May 13, at 2 o'clock. To her family, we extend our sincere sympathy.

The Children's Contest sponsored by the Ne Plus Ultra club will terminate on Friday, June 2, at the home of Mrs. Ada Rutherford, 1255 Lake street. Three cash prizes are being offered and all contestants are urged to work hard.

The Northside Elks Rest will be the scene of a lovely Fashion Review on this Friday, May 19. Beautiful clothes of the most popular styles will be worn by fashionable models from all over the city. The music will be furnished by Carroll Washington and his orchestra. Other forms of entertainment will round out the evening.

The Pacific Moment club will give its initial social function on Friday, May 19, at 816 Beaver avenue. The chairman, Mrs. Emma Booker extends an invitation to everyone.

The Loendi Social club met at the home of Mozelle Emanuel. Following the short business session, the members spent the evening playing cards. The next meeting will convene at the home of Curly Patterson.

Do you feel gay? Share it at the Loendi Social club's social on Saturday, May 20, at Geo. Ward's Restaurant, 1515 Sedgewick street on the second floor.

Walter Bradford Jr., drummer, and his partner, a young accordeon player, won first prize in an amateur contest on last Wednesday, May 10, at the Roosevelt theater. The audience and judges were overwhelmed by their sensational renditions.

The Northside Civic Concert orchestra will play at the Brown Chapel Church on Monday evening, May 22. Their next engagement will be on May 26 at the Avonworth high school. Walter F. Bradford, teacher on Recreation Education Project, is the director.